

08/09/2009

Written by: Tony Sirett, Managing Director, Rodney Gibson Financial Services Pty Ltd.

Children's savings

Most parents and grandparents have recognised that historically children were not being taught enough about money or money values school. This situation is improving fortunately with these skills now being included in school curriculums but for many parents and grandparents they still want to help out further and help their children and grandchildren along.

Many of our clients want to save for their children's education or for future events such as buying a car, getting married, helping them to buy a house or simply to leave them a legacy that they can carry on.

Rodney Gibson Financial Services is well positioned to help you make the right choices. We are a caring, privately owned, licensed financial advisory firm who work with our clients best interests at heart. We would love the opportunity to meet you and let you know who we are. Why not give us a go – you have nothing to lose.

Disclaimer:

This article is produced for general information purposes only and is provided in good faith. This article does not contain investment or insurance advice and is not to be relied on as a substitute for professional financial advice. Such advice should be sought prior to any implementing any strategies. Whilst the information contained herein is considered reliable, responsibility is not taken for errors, omissions or inaccuracies.